

WEEKS OF DAILY DEMOCRAT TO THE COUNTRY.
One Year.	85 00
Six Months.	3 00
Three Months.	1 50
One Month.	1 00
All No subscriptions taken for less than one month.

All Subscribers, whose papers were discontinued when the mail facilities were cut off in Southern Kentucky and Tennessee, can obtain them now by giving us notice where they received them and where they now wish them forwarded for the time paid for.

The letter lately written by Horace Greeley to Garrett Davis betrays on the part of the said Horace, the derelict of the Union in his estimation. He and his school couldn't get the offices. He reminds Davis that Ayle Buckner once dared to vote for a restriction on slavery, and was beaten. He tells Davis, too, that Powell and Magoffin were made Governors by the pro-slavery men, over the friends of Garrett Davis. We happen to know better than all this in Kentucky; but the remarks of Greeley show what is the matter. He doesn't wish a restoration of the old Union; this Greeley has long since given notice of. Greeley has felt indignant that these Southern men and Democratic should hold office, and he and his friends stand out in the cold.

What harm these men ever did Greeley doesn't say; but he warns Davis that if these Southern fellows are not effectively crushed out, they will turn up again and turn Davis & Co. out very likely, and that is not to be endured.

Julian, of Indiana, is indignant, too, when he thinks of the old Union. He and his school have been out of office, without spoils—couldn't get a spoil. He can't abide the thought of such times coming back. He doesn't allege that the men in office did him any harm. The great evil is, that they had been of the me for a long time and he of the outs. The right to office is the right after all, and the danger of losing it, the greatest of perils.

It's a great pity these Southern fools and knaves started so soon. In a few years more Greeley, Julian & Co. would have got up a rebellion for the sake of freedom, humanity and other good things; really for the sake of office, nothing else. They would have precipitated simpletons enough to join them. Then the South would have been very loyal and for coercion. We should have whipped back a few states. The truth is, the North first started the idea of rebellion and secession in this country, and ought to have taken the responsibility of first carrying it out. The South only needed to wait a few years more, and they could have enjoyed whipping a Northern rebellion. The tables are turned by their own folly, and they will be whipped out them-selves.

The radical Republican press, of course, don't relish the late report of Commissioners sent to look into Fremont's quandam department. The only injustice they can complain of is, that General Fremont had not an opportunity to cross-examine witnesses or produce rebutting testimony. That is an injustice that ex-partisans are liable to. Let Fremont demand a trial; or, if he will not do so, let the President order one. The charges are of the gravest character; no man guilty of them should be intrusted with a command of any sort, much less with a high command. Certainly, if Fremont respects his future fame, he will not allow these ex-parte statements to be the only record of his conduct next.

We call the attention of our readers to a communication in this morning's Democrat, suggesting the name of Philip Speed in connection with the office of Clerk of the Jefferson County Court. Mr. Speed is now engaged as paymaster in the army, but he combines all the requisites of character and fitness for the office named. We do not know that he will be a candidate, though we have often heard him spoken of as a suitable man for the place.

A good old fool has been teaching contrabands at Washington, and describes how he does it. Our contrabands about here could teach him a great deal more common sense than he has learned up to this time.

Gen. Nelson, when promising a man-of-war fight to the captain of the gunboat, did right to ask for a bottle of wine, as he may be presumed to have been well out of port.

Beauregard said if his army failed at Pittsburg, they had better lay down their arms. They didn't lay down their arms, but they did.

It is to be apprehended that Beauregard will proceed fr. Corinth, by rail, with an overwhelming force, directly against General Mitchel, now at Pittsburg.

Beauregard professedly said, "He would water his horses in the Tennessee river or k.-l. He failed in the first, but was a whip furnished with the hot lead.

A correspondent thinks it would be hard work to upon Beauregard's name. If we tried, it would be no work at all. We could only play upon it.

The rebels say they are trying to escape from the bondage of Egypt. Hardly possible when they are so destitute of good men.

The Confederates telegraphed from Pittsburg diligently all day Sunday, but on Monday hadn't time to report progress.

McClellan has a vast achievement before him, and he will accomplish it, we guess, as not the Confederates or other people expect.

Jeff. Davis, on taking the field, praises the endurance of his soldiers. Take care, Jeff., or you will find it "durance ville."

Gambots are said to rock a great deal in which; so every fight is in one sense an enlarged battle of Tippy-canoe.

The rebel leaders are still going ahead—and necktie.

(For the Louisville Democrat.)

The Sanitary Commission for the department of Kentucky respectfully and gratefully acknowledge the benevolent contributions of the citizens of Louisville, of various portions of Kentucky, and of several parishes in Indiana, for the care and relief of the restoration of the Union at Pittsburg Landing, Tennessee. By the prompt ministrations that responded to the appeal of the Sanitary Commission, we were enabled to send the Rev. E. C. Eicholtz on Thursday last on his mission of mercy and love, refreshed with an abundance of the articles most needed by the suffering martyrs for their country's salvation. He is representing Kentucky in the cause, we find, and a double responsibility entrusted to us. We are announcing the liberal placing in our hands by the loyal citizens. We consider our present acknowledgments to the contributions sent to the Sanitary Commission.

The Merrimac can't sail in a heavy sea. That, we suppose, is what is meant by calling her equal to a float-tilly.

The Nashville fairly flew out of Beaufort. That is an example of a steam vessel's escaping through her flues.

The Secessionists cannot be blamed for starting false reports, when they are so destitute of intelligence.

Beauregard, says, an exchange, means of a war horse. We suppose Beauregard is a martial neig.

If Marshall doesn't remove his big person soon, we will have to send General Hurl-butt after him.

The British hoped to get Portland, Maine. They were, as usual, looking for the Maine chance.

The rebel proposition of free trade to foreign nations shows an evident desire to sell' them.

Powder, &c., in bombs, are like young chickens, and only intended to break out of the shell.

The faults of rebellion are on its face.—Exchange.

We perceive it has a false face.

The flight of the rebels at Pittsburg is not only beyond civil, but beyond cavalry.

Gen. Grant was completely surprised, but not more so than the country to learn it.

When young chickens are wanted at sea, the egg are put in the hatchway.

The abolition bills in Congress begin to make that body look bills.

A steam vessel of war never goes into a hot fight unless she is coaled.

Great as this Union is, it can't get along without a Mississippi valet.

The way in which our navy is managed shows good man-ner.

Fremont is a scamp now, but in battle he will scamper.

Do dumbbells furnish vessels of war with bombs?

(For the Louisville Democrat.)

Jefferson County Court Clerk.

GENTLEMEN: I find announced in your columns the names of Robert Elliott and T. Clark Conn as candidates for the office of Clerk of the Jefferson County Court.

There are doubtless others who aspire to this position. The office is, in many respects, one of the most responsible and important within the gift of the people. The record of all deeds and transfers of property; the settlement of estates; the cases of minors and, indeed, the general business of the office, is such, that, in making a selection for the place, care should be taken to see that a man of sterling character, of careful business habits and responsibility should fill the position. I do not mean to disparage the claims of any gentleman mentioned in connection with this office, but simply wish to call the attention of the voters of the city and county to the fitness and capacity of one well known to them all. Major Philip Speed, now a paymaster in the army, is one who is endeared to the people of the county. His long residence among them, his general intelligence, but more especially his capacity fitted him as eminently fitted for the place. If Fremont demands a trial; or, if he will not do so, let the President order one. The charges are of the gravest character; no man guilty of them should be intrusted with a command of any sort, much less with a high command. Certainly, if Fremont respects his future fame, he will not allow these ex-parte statements to be the only record of his conduct next.

We call the attention of our readers to a communication in this morning's Democrat, suggesting the name of Philip Speed in connection with the office of Clerk of the Jefferson County Court. Mr. Speed is now engaged as paymaster in the army, but he combines all the requisites of character and fitness for the office named. We do not know that he will be a candidate, though we have often heard him spoken of as a suitable man for the place.

The radical Republican press, of course, don't relish the late report of Commissioners sent to look into Fremont's quandam department. The only injustice they can complain of is, that General Fremont had not an opportunity to cross-examine witnesses or produce rebutting testimony. That is an injustice that ex-partisans are liable to. Let Fremont demand a trial; or, if he will not do so, let the President order one. The charges are of the gravest character; no man guilty of them should be intrusted with a command of any sort, much less with a high command. Certainly, if Fremont respects his future fame, he will not allow these ex-parte statements to be the only record of his conduct next.

We call the attention of our readers to a communication in this morning's Democrat, suggesting the name of Philip Speed in connection with the office of Clerk of the Jefferson County Court. Mr. Speed is now engaged as paymaster in the army, but he combines all the requisites of character and fitness for the office named. We do not know that he will be a candidate, though we have often heard him spoken of as a suitable man for the place.

The radical Republican press, of course, don't relish the late report of Commissioners sent to look into Fremont's quandam department. The only injustice they can complain of is, that General Fremont had not an opportunity to cross-examine witnesses or produce rebutting testimony. That is an injustice that ex-partisans are liable to. Let Fremont demand a trial; or, if he will not do so, let the President order one. The charges are of the gravest character; no man guilty of them should be intrusted with a command of any sort, much less with a high command. Certainly, if Fremont respects his future fame, he will not allow these ex-parte statements to be the only record of his conduct next.

We call the attention of our readers to a communication in this morning's Democrat, suggesting the name of Philip Speed in connection with the office of Clerk of the Jefferson County Court. Mr. Speed is now engaged as paymaster in the army, but he combines all the requisites of character and fitness for the office named. We do not know that he will be a candidate, though we have often heard him spoken of as a suitable man for the place.

The radical Republican press, of course, don't relish the late report of Commissioners sent to look into Fremont's quandam department. The only injustice they can complain of is, that General Fremont had not an opportunity to cross-examine witnesses or produce rebutting testimony. That is an injustice that ex-partisans are liable to. Let Fremont demand a trial; or, if he will not do so, let the President order one. The charges are of the gravest character; no man guilty of them should be intrusted with a command of any sort, much less with a high command. Certainly, if Fremont respects his future fame, he will not allow these ex-parte statements to be the only record of his conduct next.

We call the attention of our readers to a communication in this morning's Democrat, suggesting the name of Philip Speed in connection with the office of Clerk of the Jefferson County Court. Mr. Speed is now engaged as paymaster in the army, but he combines all the requisites of character and fitness for the office named. We do not know that he will be a candidate, though we have often heard him spoken of as a suitable man for the place.

The radical Republican press, of course, don't relish the late report of Commissioners sent to look into Fremont's quandam department. The only injustice they can complain of is, that General Fremont had not an opportunity to cross-examine witnesses or produce rebutting testimony. That is an injustice that ex-partisans are liable to. Let Fremont demand a trial; or, if he will not do so, let the President order one. The charges are of the gravest character; no man guilty of them should be intrusted with a command of any sort, much less with a high command. Certainly, if Fremont respects his future fame, he will not allow these ex-parte statements to be the only record of his conduct next.

We call the attention of our readers to a communication in this morning's Democrat, suggesting the name of Philip Speed in connection with the office of Clerk of the Jefferson County Court. Mr. Speed is now engaged as paymaster in the army, but he combines all the requisites of character and fitness for the office named. We do not know that he will be a candidate, though we have often heard him spoken of as a suitable man for the place.

The radical Republican press, of course, don't relish the late report of Commissioners sent to look into Fremont's quandam department. The only injustice they can complain of is, that General Fremont had not an opportunity to cross-examine witnesses or produce rebutting testimony. That is an injustice that ex-partisans are liable to. Let Fremont demand a trial; or, if he will not do so, let the President order one. The charges are of the gravest character; no man guilty of them should be intrusted with a command of any sort, much less with a high command. Certainly, if Fremont respects his future fame, he will not allow these ex-parte statements to be the only record of his conduct next.

We call the attention of our readers to a communication in this morning's Democrat, suggesting the name of Philip Speed in connection with the office of Clerk of the Jefferson County Court. Mr. Speed is now engaged as paymaster in the army, but he combines all the requisites of character and fitness for the office named. We do not know that he will be a candidate, though we have often heard him spoken of as a suitable man for the place.

The radical Republican press, of course, don't relish the late report of Commissioners sent to look into Fremont's quandam department. The only injustice they can complain of is, that General Fremont had not an opportunity to cross-examine witnesses or produce rebutting testimony. That is an injustice that ex-partisans are liable to. Let Fremont demand a trial; or, if he will not do so, let the President order one. The charges are of the gravest character; no man guilty of them should be intrusted with a command of any sort, much less with a high command. Certainly, if Fremont respects his future fame, he will not allow these ex-parte statements to be the only record of his conduct next.

We call the attention of our readers to a communication in this morning's Democrat, suggesting the name of Philip Speed in connection with the office of Clerk of the Jefferson County Court. Mr. Speed is now engaged as paymaster in the army, but he combines all the requisites of character and fitness for the office named. We do not know that he will be a candidate, though we have often heard him spoken of as a suitable man for the place.

The radical Republican press, of course, don't relish the late report of Commissioners sent to look into Fremont's quandam department. The only injustice they can complain of is, that General Fremont had not an opportunity to cross-examine witnesses or produce rebutting testimony. That is an injustice that ex-partisans are liable to. Let Fremont demand a trial; or, if he will not do so, let the President order one. The charges are of the gravest character; no man guilty of them should be intrusted with a command of any sort, much less with a high command. Certainly, if Fremont respects his future fame, he will not allow these ex-parte statements to be the only record of his conduct next.

We call the attention of our readers to a communication in this morning's Democrat, suggesting the name of Philip Speed in connection with the office of Clerk of the Jefferson County Court. Mr. Speed is now engaged as paymaster in the army, but he combines all the requisites of character and fitness for the office named. We do not know that he will be a candidate, though we have often heard him spoken of as a suitable man for the place.

The radical Republican press, of course, don't relish the late report of Commissioners sent to look into Fremont's quandam department. The only injustice they can complain of is, that General Fremont had not an opportunity to cross-examine witnesses or produce rebutting testimony. That is an injustice that ex-partisans are liable to. Let Fremont demand a trial; or, if he will not do so, let the President order one. The charges are of the gravest character; no man guilty of them should be intrusted with a command of any sort, much less with a high command. Certainly, if Fremont respects his future fame, he will not allow these ex-parte statements to be the only record of his conduct next.

We call the attention of our readers to a communication in this morning's Democrat, suggesting the name of Philip Speed in connection with the office of Clerk of the Jefferson County Court. Mr. Speed is now engaged as paymaster in the army, but he combines all the requisites of character and fitness for the office named. We do not know that he will be a candidate, though we have often heard him spoken of as a suitable man for the place.

The radical Republican press, of course, don't relish the late report of Commissioners sent to look into Fremont's quandam department. The only injustice they can complain of is, that General Fremont had not an opportunity to cross-examine witnesses or produce rebutting testimony. That is an injustice that ex-partisans are liable to. Let Fremont demand a trial; or, if he will not do so, let the President order one. The charges are of the gravest character; no man guilty of them should be intrusted with a command of any sort, much less with a high command. Certainly, if Fremont respects his future fame, he will not allow these ex-parte statements to be the only record of his conduct next.

We call the attention of our readers to a communication in this morning's Democrat, suggesting the name of Philip Speed in connection with the office of Clerk of the Jefferson County Court. Mr. Speed is now engaged as paymaster in the army, but he combines all the requisites of character and fitness for the office named. We do not know that he will be a candidate, though we have often heard him spoken of as a suitable man for the place.

The radical Republican press, of course, don't relish the late report of Commissioners sent to look into Fremont's quandam department. The only injustice they can complain of is, that General Fremont had not an opportunity to cross-examine witnesses or produce rebutting testimony. That is an injustice that ex-partisans are liable to. Let Fremont demand a trial; or, if he will not do so, let the President order one. The charges are of the gravest character; no man guilty of them should be intrusted with a command of any sort, much less with a high command. Certainly, if Fremont respects his future fame, he will not allow these ex-parte statements to be the only record of his conduct next.

We call the attention of our readers to a communication in this morning's Democrat, suggesting the name of Philip Speed in connection with the office of Clerk of the Jefferson County Court. Mr. Speed is now engaged as paymaster in the army, but he combines all the requisites of character and fitness for the office named. We do not know that he will be a candidate, though we have often heard him spoken of as a suitable man for the place.

The radical Republican press, of course, don't relish the late report of Commissioners sent to look into Fremont's quandam department. The only injustice they can complain of is, that General Fremont had not an opportunity to cross-examine witnesses or produce rebutting testimony. That is an injustice that ex-partisans are liable to. Let Fremont demand a trial; or, if he will not do so, let the President order one. The charges are of the gravest character; no man guilty of them should be intrusted with a command of any sort, much less with a high command. Certainly, if Fremont respects his future fame, he will not allow these ex-parte statements to be the only record of his conduct next.

We call the attention of our readers to a communication in this morning's Democrat, suggesting the name of Philip Speed in connection with the office of Clerk of the Jefferson County Court. Mr. Speed is now engaged as paymaster in the army, but he combines all the requisites of character and fitness for the office named. We do not know that he will be a candidate, though we have often heard him spoken of as a suitable man for the place.

The radical Republican press, of course, don't relish the late report of Commissioners sent to look into Fremont's quandam department. The only injustice they can complain of is, that General Fremont had not an opportunity to cross-examine witnesses or produce rebutting testimony. That is an injustice that ex-partisans are liable to. Let Fremont demand a trial; or

Daily Democrat

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY HARNEY, HUGHES & CO.

500-70 Third Street, east side, between Market and Jefferson.

TUESDAY.....APRIL 15.

Closing and Arrival of the Mails at the Louisville Postoffice.

Eastern, Western, and Northern close at 12:00 M., and arrive at 12:00 P.M. via L. & N. R. (small letters), close at 2:00 P.M. via the Louisville and Western, close at 3:00 P.M., and arrive at 4:00 P.M.

Midland, Cincinnati, Ohio, closes at 9:00 A.M., and arrive at 4:00 A.M.

L. & F. R. R. closes at 12:00 noon, and 1:00 P.M., and arrive at 4:00 P.M.

Shelbyville closes at 12:00 at night, and arrives at 6:00 A.M.

Lebanon R. R. closes at 12:00 at night, and arrives at 6:00 A.M.

Monon R. R. closes at 2:00 P.M., and arrives 9:30 P.M.

St. Louis and New Orleans Stage (tri-weekly) closes at 12:00 at night, and arrives at 6:00 P.M.

Henderson and River (tri-weekly) leaves Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, and arrives at 6:00 A.M.

Paducah Stage closes at 8:00 A.M., and arrives at 4:00 P.M.

Elizabethtown Stage closes at 12:00 at night, and arrives at 6:00 A.M.

Frankfort Stage closes at 6:00 P.M., and arrives at 6:00 A.M.

Lexington Stage closes at 6:00 P.M., and arrives at 6:00 A.M.

Local News.

Don't Send us 10-Cent Stamps.
We can not use any stamp of a greater denomination than three cents, and we must therefore caution our friends against sending them. It will only subject us to the necessity of returning them.

The General Hospital.

Hospital No. 1, corner of Ninth street and Broadway.

Hospital No. 2, corner of Eighth and Green streets.

Hospital No. 3, Main street, between Seventh and Eighth.

Hospital No. 4, corner of Fifteenth and Main streets.

Hospital No. 5, corner of Center and Green streets.

Hospital for small pox, on Bardstown road, near Cave Hill Cemetery.

BEAUREGARD'S SPEECH.—On the Commanders Perry, which went to Cincinnati with a load of wounded, was a rebel Major (we did not learn his name), who had been wounded. He stated that before the fight, Beauregard made a speech to his men to the following effect:

The engagement now before them was to be the decisive battle of this contest; if they lost it, all was lost; if they gained it, the prospect was bright. They had not had any pay, and if they failed in this battle, would not get any, for their money would not be worth a cent; if they gained a victory, each man should have a thousand dollars.

This promise it was, says the Major, which nerve the rebel forces with such desperation and determination. But it was all of no avail, and they have fled not to be coaxed into another fight.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Monday, April 14. Walter Gaffney, drunkards and disorderly conduct; $100 for two months. Gone up.

Michael Farrell, stabbing Thos. Lahay with intent to kill; $400 to answer.

John Williams, charged with vagrancy and carrying concealed a deadly weapon; $200 for six months. Gone up.

Wm. H. Sillars, stealing a pair of boots from Capt. Chas. C. McCormick worth over $4, discharged.

David Young, drunk and disorderly conduct; military prison.

Dennis O'Brien, charged with stealing a pistol from Wolfe and Derringer worth over $4, $300 to answer.

John Harris, charged with stealing a tin can, &c., &c., gone to the workhouse for one month.

THE WOUNDED.—One boat load of the wounded arrived Sunday night, at seven o'clock, and though the people were crowding to see the brave fellows, a guard had been set to prevent the rush. The arrivals were parceled off among the different hospitals, and visitors will not be admitted until the poor fellows have had a little rest. We trust the public will see the wisdom and kindness of this order, and wait as patiently as they can till they may pay their visits safely.

Another boat load arrived yesterday morning; but, of course, the same regulations are to be observed as in the first case.

PLANTERS BURNING COTTON.—A secession planter of Tennessee, who was in Nashville the other day to sell his cotton, was reproached by an ardent rebel for so doing. His reply was: "Do you suppose I'm such a fool as to burn up cotton when I can sell it? Out of one thousand bales destroyed in my country, not one has been by planters' hands; but all by ragamuffin thieves, who never had a bale in their lives and never will!" So much for rebel brags.

We hear it suggested that the city schools, or some of them, will probably be taken for hospital purposes. We trust this is not so. The children should be kept at school. It would be far better to appropriate the churches. The Christian can worship in his closet, but the thousands of children can only be taught at school.

The ladies of the First ward Soldiers' Aid Society will meet at the residence of the moderator, Mrs. Henry Wolford, on Jefferson, between Campbell and Wenzel streets, on Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock prepared to work."

All the loyal ladies of the Ninth ward are requested to meet at the residence of Mrs. Wm. P. Boone, on Wednesday evening, at 2 o'clock. A full attendance is desired, as an business of importance will be transacted.

—The report of Beauregard's death, which came Sunday night by telegraph, we believe to be bogus. It looks to us very much like a report started for effect, coming, as it does, through rebel sources.

Mrs. Judge Ballou, who resides near the Fair Ground, invites the loyal ladies of that vicinity to meet at her house this morning, at ten o'clock, to aid in taking care of the wounded soldiers.

A Board of Managers of the Young Men's Association in Detroit refused the use of their hall to Wendell Phillips. All honor to the young men of Detroit.

The sewing meeting of the loyal ladies of the Eighth ward will take place at the residence of Mrs. J. H. Bhoror, on Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

The ladies of the Third Ward are earnestly requested to meet at Mrs. Curran Pope's, to-morrow (Tuesday), at half past nine o'clock.

The ladies who are ever active in doing good, are boasting themselves unusually to benefit the gallant soldiers who are now among us.

We are indebted to Mr. J. Woodward for Cincinnati papers in advance of the mail.

The "Old Folks" are giving concerts at Cincinnati.

List of Wounded in General Hospitals, Louisville.

HOSPITAL NO. 1.

Jay Lyons, private, Co. 1, 1st Inf.

Mich. R. Ind., private, Co. 1, 1st Inf.

J. F. Duncan, private, Co. 1, 1st Inf.

Sam Thomas, private, Co. 2, 1st Inf.

W. T. Hopkins, private, Co. 2, 1st Inf.

John C. Smith, private, Co. 2, 1st Inf.

Jacob Jackson, private, Co. 2, 1st Inf.

Joe Charles, private, Co. 2, 1st Inf.

John Schmitz, private, Co. 2, 1st Inf.

Chris Powell, private, Co. 2, 1st Inf.

Alex. McNeal, private, Co. 2, 1st Inf.

John W. Miller, private, Co. 2, 1st Inf.

MISCELLANEOUS.

W. B. BELKNAP & CO.,
IRON MERCHANTS,
236 COR. MAIN AND THIRD STS.,
HAVE IN STOCK AND FOR SALE THE FOLLOWING:

Iron and Steel,
1,000 Tons assorted, superior quality, warranted.

Nails and Spikes,
6,000 lbs., comprising the common Nails, from 2 to 100 lbs. each, and Steel Nails, Lathing and wrought
Also, Cut and Wrought Spikes.

Horse & Mule Shoes,
1,000 lbs. Borden's Improved Government pattern
Horse & Mule Horseshoes,
800 lbs. each.

Horse & Mule Nails
6,000 pounds Hammered, best made.

Fairbanks' Scales.
We will call attention to their selling iron from Company Scales, got up expressly for army use.

Safes,
Suitable for Paymasters and others.

Cordage & Oakum.
We have a large stock of Manila on hand,

Hollow-ware Castings,
Sugar Kettles, &c.,
We have a general assortment.

Blacksmiths' Tools.
Axes, Belows, Hammers, &c.

Flownmakers' Materials.
Wings, Moldboards, Handles, &c.

Springs and Axles.
Best make, warranted.

Bolts, Rivets & Washers
All of which we are offering at very low prices.

A. B. SEMPLE & SONS,
602 MAIN STREET,
CORNER OF SIXTH

Call the Attention of Country
Merchants to their
Large and well Assorted
STOCK OF

HARDWARE
CUTLERY, &c.
MANAGERS' OFFICE

—OF THE—

LIBRARY ASSOCIATION COMPANY

No. 305 Jefferson Street.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVING OBTAINED THE Charter of the

KENTUCKY STATE LIBRARY ASSOCIATION
COMPANY,

Passed by the Legislature in 1860, will commence drawing under the same on this day.

Thursday, April 10th,

And will continue drawing at 12 o'clock noon, and 5 o'clock P. M., daily, at the Managers' Office, No. 305 Jefferson Street.

Tickets will be issued on the Supplementary or East or West lotteries, and will be sold at the same price as of selecting their own numbers. Tickets can be obtained from any of the licensed dealers of tickets in Louisville.

The Premiums will be drawn in the same place under the supervision of two or more Commissioners.

The Premiums will be published in a list of the daily papers of Louisville.

W. C. FRANCE & CO.,
(Successors to R. France & Co.)
MANAGERS.

FRANK ERSKINE'S

SHELBY COLLEGE
—AND—

Supplementary
LOTTERY OFFICE,

On Jefferson street, bet. Third and Fourth, south side.

FOR TICKETS IN THE ABOVE LOTTERIES, CALL on or address

FRANK G. ERSKINE,
Louisville, Ky.

Business strictly confidential.

GALT NEAR CINCINNATI, TENN.

ALL THE OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS OF THIS REGIMENT will be called on account of sickness, on or before the 1st of April, to report to the Commanding officer, and to be ready to do duty as ordered to retain the regiment immediately. They will report to the Commanding officer, and to be ready to do duty as ordered to retain the regiment.

Mr. COOPER, who signed all that who discharge this order will in a list to the other punishment, forfeit all the pay due them from the United States.

M. H. HARLAN,
Col. 10th Regt., Ky. Vol.

10th Regt., Ky.

